

NEWPORT CHRISTMAS CARD COMPETITION 2018

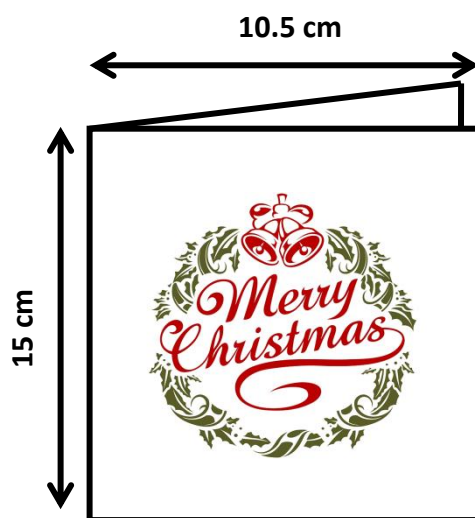

Newport Town Council is running the annual Christmas Card Competition where the winner from each age group of which will be gifted with an open ended family ticket to the Cinderella Pantomime at Oakengates Theatre. The overall winner will also be selected to turn on Newport's Christmas Lights on Friday 30th November 2018, alongside their card becoming the Mayors official Christmas card for 2018. We will also display as many cards as possible in the Town Councils window.

The cards can be decorated however the children want, let their imagination run wild however no digital submissions can be accepted. The competition is a great festive themed activity for your pupils and children so make sure you get it in your lesson plan or list of Christmas activities for your children!
