Newsletter Christmas 2019

Dear parents, carers and families

Welcome to the Christmas edition of our newsletter.

This academic year we will be continuing to raise funds for the refurbishment of the 'Quiet Area'.

This is the area between the playground and the field. Plans are being drawn up at the moment.

So far, the recent cake stall raised £121 and the disco raised £507.

Profits from the Christmas card sales will be known shortly.

Thank you to everyone for their support so far, excellent start to this year's fundraising.

Key Dates

Tuesday 12–Thursday 14 November: Bag2School

Friday 29 November: Mufti for a Jar for Christmas Fayre

Monday 2–Thursday 5 December: Chocolate Challenge

Friday 6 December (2pm–3.30pm): Christmas Fayre

Mufti for a Jar

Friday 29 November

All children can come into school in mufti on this day in exchange for a filled jar for the Christmas Fayre Jar Stall.

Jars to be filled with a small gift: sweets, crayons, small toys etc.

Bag2School

Tuesday 12–Thursday 14 November

Bags have been sent home with the children.

Bags can be dropped off in the mornings on:

Tuesday 12 November

Wednesday 13 November

Thursday 14 November

Please drop them off at the conservatory at the entrance to the playground.

Chocolate Challenge

Monday 2 to Thursday 5 December

During this week, children are to bring in donations of chocolate please, to be used on Chocolate Tombola stall at Christmas Fayre. The class that brings in the most chocolate (by weight) will receive extra break time. Chocolate will be weighed and ticketed up on the final day ready for the Fayre the following day.

Christmas Fayre

Friday 6 December

2pm–3.30pm

School Hall and surrounding area

Please join us for our biggest fund-raising event of the year!

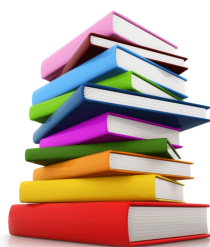

Lots of stalls and games including the following:

lucky dip, chocolate tombola, jar stall, bottle tombola, spin the wheel, books and toys stall, beauty salon (temporary tattoos, hair chalks, nail varnish), roll a coin, guess the weight of the Christmas cake, refreshments, reindeer workshop craft area and many more!

The chocolate tombola (as it is always very popular) will be in the library again this year. Access will be via the outside door (opposite hall entrance), one way through the library, exiting in the Year 6 area.

Christmas Fayre Donations

We would be grateful for donations of the following for the Christmas Fair:

- bottles for the bottle tombola (any unopened bottles: wine, beer, spirits, pop, shampoo, ketchup!)
- raffle prizes
- second-hand books and toys and other bric-a-brac
- nail varnish (unwanted varnishes for our beauty salon, can be part used)

All donations can be brought into the school office during weeks commencing 25 November and 2 December.

We really appreciate any donations you are able to make. Thank you.
