Half Term Reading Challenge

Book Week

- Can you show us where you have been caught reading?
- Where do you like to read?
- I wonder how extreme your reading spots can be?
- Take part in our Extreme Reading Challenge !

The challenge is for you to take a photo of the craziest place you can read over the next fortnight. Bring the photo into school on Friday 28th February and we will display them in the library. They will be entered into a book prize competition!
