Determiners

Determiners go in front of nouns. They tell you whether the noun is a general thing or a particular thing.

These are examples — there are lots more.

Underline the determiners in the sentences below.

- The teacher told us a funny story about an elephant in the jungle.
- We saw a picture of that house by the river where our boat is.
- Ben and Bill finally changed those light bulbs in their bathroom.
- A police officer chased some thieves out of the bank and into an alleyway.

Writing

- Proof-read your postcard from Friday - look for mistakes! (spellings, punctuation, capital letters)
- Edit your postcard - make it better!

Have you included...? relative clauses brackets

Daily maths includes the use of TTRS.

There are website suggestions recommended within our half term homework, which will reinforce the recent fraction module.

Look at the sheet recapping converting Mixed number fraction into improper fractions, which will run over tomorrow as well.

Copy and complete in your exercise book.

Balloon Volleyball

Make a net by trying a piece of wool/string from one chair to another. Then blow up a balloon and start practicing those serving skills! Change things up a bit by kicking or heading the balloon.

Home Learning Project: Journeying

Design and Technology (2 days Monday and Tuesday) -

Design and create boat that you could use on a voyage.

Consider the shape of your boat carefully using what you know about forces.

Draw a detailed picture, with labels for your boat.

Setting The Table!

As long as everything is in the children's reach, children can set the table! If you'd like to encourage your child to help in the kitchen, try clearing a low kitchen shelf for the things they need to access. They will enjoy the task even more if they don't have to ask for your help!
