English

For English today please edit your story.

Firstly reread it to make sure it makes sense and you've not left anything out.

Are there any words that you could improve?

Any adjectives or adverbs you could add?

Any missing punctuation?

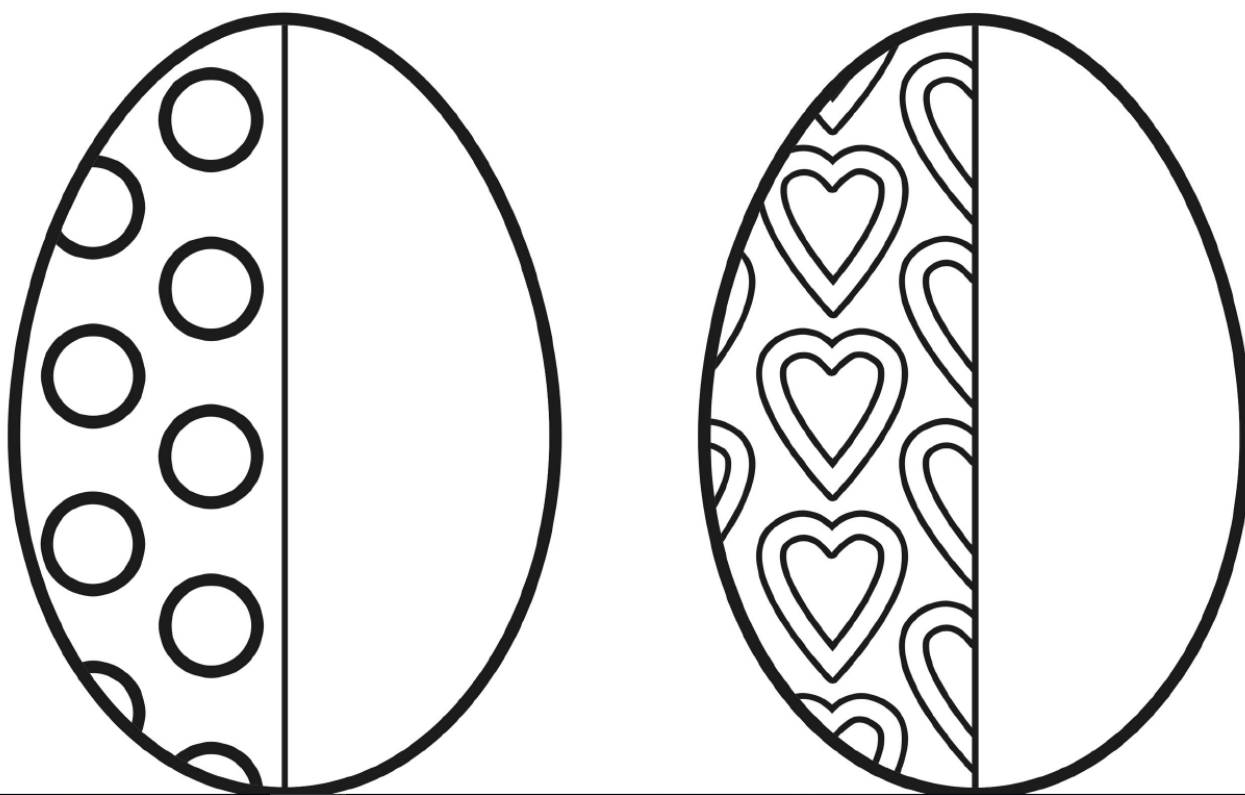

Any detail you could add to make your story better?

Use your writing targets to remind you of what you should have included.

Next.... Read to an adult. See what they think. Could they suggest anything to make it better?
