

Story of Macbeth

by Nancy Gilbert 5m

Dear Mr Moody,

We listened to Miss Hardy read the story of Macbeth. I want to tell you what I know about it.

It all started with Macbeth having a thought of being king, he pictured himself sitting in the Kings throne.

One night while riding his horse with his friend Banquo, he saw the sky go violet and three witches appeared. They chanted "all hail Macbeth, thane of Glamis. All hail Macbeth thane of Cordon. All hail Macbeth who shall be king.

All hail Banquo who children shall be king"

This confused Macbeth as he wasn't thane of Cordon.

Once the witches had gone, Macbeth had a thought running in his head, how could this possibly happen? There was already a thane of Cordon. As this happened a guard came to say that the thane of Cordon has been executed, and that King Duncan said he wants Macbeth to be the new thane of Cordon and king after his sons.

After this amazing news he thought to write to his wife because she should know of this. Lady Macbeth convinced Macbeth to kill king Duncan so he can be king , She puts blood on her hands and rubs it on the guards faces to make it look like it was them that killed King Duncan.

In the morning when the Kings sons find out that their dad has been killed they run away so they do not get the blame.

Macbeth was crowned but the crown did not give him the pleasure as he imaged. He was still thinking about what the witches had said to him and Banquo. He decides that Banquo and his son should be killed so they don't take his place being king. He pays two guards to kill them but Banquo son escapes.

Macbeth went to find the witches, they said 'no man born from a woman shall harm you, you will be safe until Burnham woods walk to Dunstinane.' and 'Beware Macduff thane of Fife'.

Macbeth was not scared because every man was born from a woman and woods can not walk!

That night lady Macbeth spoke in her sleep and became ill she grew weaker every day with the guilt staring at her!

Macduff brought an army to defeat Macbeth. Macduff said 'I was not born from a woman the doctor had to cut my mother's belly to get me out because my mom was dead.

Macduff cut of Macbeths head and stuck it on a spear and stuck it in the ground!

Hope you enjoyed my recap on the story Macbeth x
