

Remembrance Day

What is Remembrance Day?

Remembrance Day is held on the 11th of November. A two minute silence is always held at the 11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month of the year to remember the millions who have died at war. Remembrance Day was first held in 1919, one year after World War I ended.

What do people do on Remembrance Day?

Poppies are worn on Remembrance Day because they are the flowers which grew on the battlefields after World War I ended.

The British Legion

A charity called The Royal British Legion run the Poppy Appeal every year to raise money for soldiers by selling small paper poppies.

Photos courtesy of Defence Images, J D Mack and James Best (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Questions

Answer the questions below in full sentences

1. When is Remembrance Day held each year?

2. Why is a two minute silence held each year?

3. Why do people wear poppies on Remembrance Day?

4. What is the name of the charity which sells poppies each year?

Answers

1. When is Remembrance Day held each year?
Remembrance day is held of the 11th of November.
2. Why is a two minute silence held each year?
Each year there is a two minute silence To remember the millions who have died at war.
3. Why do people wear poppies on Remembrance Day?
People wear poppies on Remembrance Day because they are the flowers which grew on the battlefields after World War One.
4. What is the name of the charity which sells poppies each year?
The name of the charity that sells poppies each year is The Royal British Legion.

Remembrance Day

What is Remembrance Day?

Remembrance Day is held on the 11th of November. A two minute silence is always held at the 11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month of the year to remember the millions who have died at war. Remembrance Day was first held in 1919, one year after World War I ended. It is sometimes known as Armistice Day.

What do people do on Remembrance Day?

Poppies are worn on Remembrance Day because they are the flowers which grew on the battlefields after World War I ended.

The British Legion

A charity called The Royal British Legion run the Poppy Appeal every year to raise money for soldiers by selling small paper poppies.

Photos courtesy of Defence Images, J D Mack and James Best (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Questions

Answer the questions below in full sentences

1. When is Remembrance Day held each year?

2. Why is a two minute silence held each year?

3. What other name is Remembrance Day sometimes known as?

4. Why do people wear poppies on Remembrance Day?

5. What is the name of the charity which sells poppies each year? Why do they do this?

Answers

1. When is Remembrance Day held each year?
Remembrance day is held of the 11th of November.
2. Why is a two minute silence held each year?
Each year there is a two minute silence To remember the millions who have died at war.
3. Why do people wear poppies on Remembrance Day?
Another name for Remembrance Day is Armistice Day.
4. Why do people wear poppies on Remembrance Day?
People wear poppies on Remembrance Day because they are the flowers which grew on the battlefields after World War One had ended.
5. What is the name of the charity which sells poppies each year? Why do they do this?
The name of the charity that sells poppies each year is The Royal British Legion. They do this in order to raise money for soldiers.

Remembrance Day

What is Remembrance Day?

Remembrance Day is held on the 11th of November. A two minute silence is always held at the 11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month of the year to remember the millions who have died at war. Remembrance Day was first held in 1919, one year after World War I ended. It is sometimes known as Armistice Day.

What do people do on Remembrance Day?

On Remembrance Day, people lay wreaths of poppies on statues and monuments to remember all the soldiers who died for us. Poppies are worn on Remembrance Day because they are the flowers which grew on the battlefields after World War I ended. Today we use Remembrance Day to remember all those who have died since World War 1.

The British Legion

A charity called The Royal British Legion run the Poppy Appeal every year to raise money for soldiers by selling small paper poppies.

Photos courtesy of Defence Images, J D Mack and James Best (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Questions

Answer the questions below in full sentences

1. When is Remembrance Day held each year?

2. Why is a two minute silence held each year?

3. When was the first Remembrance Day held?

4. What other name is Remembrance Day sometimes known as?

5. Why do people lay wreaths on Remembrance Day?

6. Why do people wear poppies on Remembrance Day?

7. What is the name of the charity which sells poppies each year? Why do they do this?

Answers

1. When is Remembrance Day held each year?
Remembrance day is held of the 11th of November.
2. Why is a two minute silence held each year?
Each year there is a two minute silence To remember the millions who have died at war.
3. When was the first Remembrance Day held?
The first Remembrance Day was held in 1919.
4. What other name is Remembrance Day sometimes known as?
Another name for Remembrance Day is Armistice Day.
5. Why do people lay wreaths on Remembrance Day?
People lay wreaths of poppies on remembrance day in order to remember all the soldiers who died for us.
6. Why do people wear poppies on Remembrance Day?
People wear poppies on Remembrance Day because they are the flowers which grew on the battlefields after World War One had ended.
7. What is the name of the charity which sells poppies each year? Why do they do this?
The name of the charity that sells poppies each year is The Royal British Legion. They do this in order to raise money for soldiers.