

11.01.21 English

P.1

I feel uncertain about today, because I am going to fly a jet for the first time. Getting ready I could feel my heart racing.

- anxious
- worried
- excited
- ready
- startled

P.2

The mechanic seemed very jolly, because I was about to break the sound barrier. I was so proud, but still so nervous and step both feet in I was ready.

- Shaking
- panicking
- proud
- accomplished
- thankful

P.3

I could hear the plane coming to life

- strong
- brave
- determined
- joy

Faye's busy day

11.01.21

Mighty Monday.

- Strong
- forceful
- robust
- stout
- sturdy
- arduous
- vigorous

I felt confident when I did a flick at gym and it made me feel vigorous when I achieved it.

Wellbeing –
Might Monday
thinking

4. The sky was a pearly blue with clouds like candy glass. My adrenaline automatically kicked in. I soared through the sky at rapid speeds but everything was blurred.

- scared
- powerful
- panicked
- shocked

P.5

The engine stopped. I wanted to run, I was going to die, I had lost control in the plane.

- lost
- fear
- devastated.

P.6 At last I was safe on the ground. I made history, the plane was still shaking.

- relief
- shaky
- happy
- amazed

Planning a recount

Science – prior knowledge

Light
K	W	L
What I know	What I want to know	What I have learnt
I know that the moon reflects the light from the sun. I know when in the olden days they a light detector to tell time.	Why when was light first made? How many more years until the sun will die? Who was the first person to make light.	