

Answers

I: What does 'wandered lonely as a cloud' mean?

The poet is alone like a single cloud in the sky.

R: What does the poet see?

Daffodils

R: find and copy two places that the daffodils are.

Beside the lake/beneath the trees

V: find and copy two examples of personification.

dancing/tossing their heads

R: Find and copy a phrase that shows how many daffodils there were.

A host/never ending/ten thousand I saw

V: A poet could not but be gay - what does this mean?

It was impossible to not be happy around the daffodils.

V: Define jocund.

Cheerful.

I: 'but little thought what wealth the show to me had brought' - what is the poet saying here?

He hadn't realised how important or memorable the daffodils were to him.

V: Define pensive.

In deep thought.

I: Why does the poet often think of the daffodils?

It brings him joy and pleasure.

E: What could the daffodils represent in this poem, other than daffodils?

Any justifiable metaphorical answer such as happiness, nature etc.

S: Summarise this poem in one sentence.

Any justifiable summary. Must include seeing the daffodils and thinking about them later on.

P: Predict what might happen in a follow up poem.

Any justifiable answer: a good one might be that he revisits the daffodils.