

Clockwork Answers

03.02.21

Answers

Q1

Turns green because she controls what happens in the town and can change moments in time. She can make the colour return to the world by going back to the tower and dancing.

Q2

The clocktower controls the colour in this world.

The girl's job is to dance; this powers the clock all the world is alive and colourful.

When the clock stops time stops and this world drains of colour and motion.

Girl will feel tired – explanation expected.

Girl will feel satisfied – explanation expected.

} Either accepted

Last 2 questions, children expected to answer relating to own life providing examples and explanations that are appropriate. Answers will vary.