On Fridays I would like you to use some of these online games to help support you with the topics we have covered this week.

Follow the links to find your own by google searching;

Fraction maths games

The majority of the following links come from the 'Topmarks' website which is full of exciting games and activities to improve maths, some will have seen it from playing 'hit the button' in class.

Happy 1/2 Term!!!!

Don't forget about TTRS, on Fridays you want to organise some time in arenas so you can go against each other.
