

NJS staff recommend these books!

These are the books shared by the NJS staff in the videos released prior to book week. If you are keen to check them out, then many of them are in our school library.

Why not share your own book recommendations with your friends and family?