

Book Week

Tuesday 2nd March 2021

To use an image
to build atmosphere.

One night I was woken up by a terrible sound.

- What has awoken the boy?

Let's build vocabulary around storms

Include the following in your word bank:

- Verbs
- Adjectives
- Adverbs
- Similes
- Onomatopoeia
- Alliteration
- Personification

Today's task is to write a poem about the storm

01

The poem can take any format

02

You must use a WIDE range of figurative language: similes, metaphors, personification, alliteration, onomatopoeia, oxymoron and hyperbole.

03

Build atmosphere and tension with deliberate word choices

04

Use exciting vocabulary – have a thesaurus to hand!

05

Add illustrations to support the theme of the storm.
