English

Children's reading will focus on reading Operation Gadgetman, by Malorie Blackman.

-

Children's writing will focus on:

- Instruction writing, Leaflets, and Explanation texts, linked to Operation Gadgetman
- Narrative writing.
- Fables

Maths

Children will develop their understanding of Money, Statistics, Measurement (mass and capacity) and Geometry (properties of shape). The children will also be revisiting their knowledge of Fractions and Length and Perimeter.

Science

This term children will learn about different habitats, plant biology and life cycle, and how houses impact on nature and the environment.

Computing

- Planning, creating, structuring, and making a branching database, to identify dinosaurs.
- Using text and images in an application.
- Editing text and font size, colour and style for effect and purpose.
- Using templates
- Selecting appropriate layouts
- Understanding the uses of Desktop Publishing software.

History

- As part of understanding our British Heritage children will learn about their own town of Newport and compare it with the city of Birmingham.
- Children will develop an under- standing of the history of Newport and Birmingham.

PSHE

- Roles and responsibilities in my family and negotiating conflict.
- Influences, rights and responsibilities.
- Empathising and expressing appreciation.
- Relationships and Sex Education

Social, Moral, Spiritual, Cultural

Children will develop an appreciation of what makes our town a special place and about the diversity within our town.
We will compare where we live with Birmingham. Children will explore how it is the people who really make our British towns and cities special.

Art

- Developing pencil drawing techniques.
- Develop collage and frottage skills.
- Complete a 3D clay-bàs relief model of a 2D image.

Beliefs and Values

- What is Sikhism?
- What is a Gurdwara?
- What are Sikh core values?
- What is the Sikh holy book?
- Sikh festivals

Term: Summer - Year 3

Town & City

Geography

- Where is Newport?
- What is Newport like?
- What features can you see around Newport?
- Why do people live in Newport and how did it grow?
- To know how symbols are used on a map
- Compare Newport with a city (Birmingham)
- What is a city?
- Why do people live in cities?
- What is Birmingham like?
- How did Birmingham grow?

Topic Overview–

Children will compare the town of Newport with the city of Birmingham. Children will learn about the features of cities and city life. Children will create tourist leaflets, cityscapes, and complete traffic surveys for comparisons. Children will also investigate Newport and its growth as a town, and how it came to be.

PE

Swimming   Athletics
Dance   Qwik-Cricket

MFL- French

- Breakfast
- Fruit nouns
- Hungry giant
- Going on a picnic

Music

- World Music (Reggae & The UK)
- The Arts Centre Telford (TACT) music scheme – rhythm, pulse, singing.

Design and Technology

- To investigate how to make levers, using card designs.
- Complete a project to design and make a mechanical poster.
- Construct a pop-up card design.