

Here's what Izzy has been doing for mental health week. She's been putting all her energy into preparing for her dance competition she had a 2 and a half hour dance lesson keeping her mind occupied after the loss she's experienced this year. Her dance competition is on Sunday which is also Shane's birthday we know he will be there watching. So proud of her.

