

HEAD TEACHER AWARDS

13TH – 17TH OCTOBER 2025

WELL DONE TO ALL THE FOLLOWING CHILDREN FOR THEIR ACHIEVEMENTS THIS WEEK.

Class	Name	What is the achievement for?
3M	Ava C	Ava is a fantastic example of what a HLTA loves to have in a class. Thank you, Ava, for always being ready for learning. You are attentive and you have really gained in confidence now starting to put up your hand to answer questions. Well done, Ava, I am proud of you.
	Jack B	Jack has really impressed me with his attitude toward Subtraction in our maths lesson. Jack was able to calculate mentally as well as using a number line to aid in his work. Although Jack as a quiet voice, he is as loud as a lion in his learning. You are a real superstar, Jack.
3P	Dylan L	Dylan is making a big effort with his work, in particular his writing and maths, I can already see a big improvement since the beginning of September. Dylan is also such a compassionate young man! A real asset to 3P. Keep it up Dylan.
	Regan	Regan is super helpful and is always offering to help me in and around the classroom. She will hand things out, collect things in, she's like my mini secretary. She's such a team player and is always on hand to support her peers. It's also a real pleasure to teach her!
3B	Bethany Nora	Bethany and Nora – This week and last, Bethany and Nora have really impressed me in Maths. Both girls have recently found the courage to 'have a go' when finding things difficult and shown good resilience with tricky calculations. We have worked together on this, and I have enjoyed watching both of you grow in confidence, taking on problems and using dienes blocks equipment. Well done, girls – keep it up!
4J	Alana Frankie	Alana for excellent work in P.E. She has excellent team skills in netball, superb passing and defending. Excellent work in class too. Keep up the great work Alana. I would also like to nominate Frankie for his excellent persuasive letter and superb handwriting. Well done Frankie. Excellent perseverance too. Keep up the great work.
4L	Tommy W	Week in week out Tommy shows a fantastic attitude in class, he works hard and enjoys the activities in front of him. This week he showed some excellent community ensuring everyone got a fair go during PE.
	Arlo	Arlo has a brilliant work ethic across all subjects, he is really pushing himself with a challenge in maths and his writing has looked amazing as we develop our persuasive letters.
5P	Max M	Max has broken bones in his hand last week, but he has not let this stop him from shining. In class, he has produced some fantastic artwork and showed Mr Parker how it should really look. Well done, Max.
	Ellie N	Ellie excels in everything she does. She is a perfect role model to her peers, always ready to learn and will brighten up Mr Parker's day too with her fabulous ideas. Well done, Ellie.
5K	Charlotte	Charlotte for the fantastic effort and enthusiasm in her writing. She has considered her reader and thought carefully about the sentence structures she has used. Well done, Charlotte!
	Nathan	Nathan for the enthusiastic approach to everything he does. Nathan has a quiet determination to do his best in every task set, improving his skills in all subjects. Keep it up, Nathan!
5OP	Kareemah	Kareemah: for some wonderful explanations in maths. You are always striving to find more efficient ways to calculate. Well done!
	Caleb	Caleb: You have made some excellent contributions in lessons this week, which have demonstrated your understanding. This was particularly evident in our recent Beliefs and Values lessons.
6M	Elizabeth	Elizabeth - Always ready to learn, always on task and shows great care in her work. She sets a really good example in 6M.
	Harry	Harry - Fantastic NJS role model, whether in school or representing the school at sports events. Harry always shows the best version of himself.
6J	Noah H	Noah H - You informal letter in English writing as Olive from Letters from the Lighthouse was out of this world! A full page of writing! It has been like having a different child this last week, your work has been amazing and you are trying your best to impress me and Mrs Lane! Keep it up, Noah!
	Elrin	Elrin has super impressed me this week with her maths progress! You've mastered compact multiplication and short division. Lots of hard work has gone into your learning Elrin-well done!
6B	Harlow	Harlow Perrins Talbot for really trying hard in maths lessons last week. Harlow asked when she was unsure and stuck with it, even when it felt tough. This really paid off for Harlow. Well done!
	Jeffrey	Jeffrey Chen for writing a fabulous balanced argument in our writing lessons. He listened well to all of the elements that I wanted included in the piece of writing and managed to apply them. Jeffrey ended up writing an amazing piece of writing.
