Promoting British Values

Preparing our Children for Life in Modern Britain

At Newport CE Junior School we take our responsibility to prepare children for life in modern multicultural Britain very seriously. We ensure that the fundamental British Values are introduced, discussed and lived out through the ethos and work of the school. All curriculum areas provide a vehicle for furthering understanding of these concepts and, in particular, our RE, SMSC, and Super Learning Day lessons provide excellent opportunities to deepen and develop understanding.

Children embrace concepts of, Mutual Respect, Tolerance of different faiths and beliefs, Democracy, The Rule of Law and Individual Liberty, with pride and we continuously encourage them to demonstrate a good understanding of the application of these to their own lives. Through our curriculum, we ensure children have exposure to a wide experience beyond their local community, during which these concepts are shown, through for example, local community events and church events, sporting events, a range of visits to and visitors from places of cultural and educational interests in and around Newport. Our school's embedded values-based ethos gives them an excellent platform for embracing difference.

Through our Learning Tree pupils develop key Learning Skills which empower them to do their very best and achieve high standards in class:

- Courage
- Compassion • Community

Impact

Children can articulate why respect is important; how they show respect to others and how they feel about it for themselves. Children's outstanding behaviour demonstrates their good understanding of this value in action. Children are able to talk about the different faiths and cultures they learn about, ask questions and show tolerance and respect for others of different faiths and religions.

Children are able to work cooperatively in pairs and groups as well as in whole class situations. They understand about turn taking, active listening and respecting the views of others. Super Learning Day has provided children with a greater understanding of the General Election and our democratic process. Children understand about the importance of accepting responsibility and of their right to be heard in school. They are consulted on many aspects of school life and demonstrate independence of thought and action; during class time, through Pupil

Statement

Respect is built into our school rules, chosen by the School Council -
 ○ We respect each other's property.
 ○ We are enthusiastic, determined and dependable.
 ○ We are kind and helpful.

Respect is a school value that is discussed, starting with self and other groups; the world, people; and the environment. We pay explicit attention to our Class Rules, Group Work, P4C, and SMSC. The children at Newport Junior see democracy borne out in many ways and see this as being a component of successful citizenship. Democracy is a school value that is met when discussing respect and peace.

Our Christian Values based acts of worship often begin about the self, (self-respect, self-worth) so that children are important in their own

Our children are familiar with the concept of the importance of rules through the recent addition of our Whole School Rules. Children are involved in the choosing of their class rules at the beginning of the school year. Through House Team Meeting discussions and in RE lessons, the idea that different religions have guiding principles. Children are used to debating and discussing laws/rules and their application.
